FS185—INCIDENT SAFETY OFFICER

This course is designed to provide the skills to function efficiently as a Safety Officer in emergency incident operations. The primary focus will be on developing decision-making skills through recognition of cues that affect personnel safety while responding to an incident. As this is an incident-specific, scene-oriented course designed to teach what a Safety Officer needs to know, there will be use of hands-on and table-top scenarios to convey instructional points.

This course is accredited by ProBoard in compliance with NFPA 1521.
